Hello sewer and fabric lover,

Happy April! Here's what's new in the world of Sewing Publications this month...

New Book release

Making Memory Bear, Cushions & Throws

A memory teddy is an ideal way of explaining the death of a parent or grandparent to a young child, and gives them a way to feel close to their loved one. And memorial items give the bereaved person a reason to hang onto those precious belongings.

Whether you want to just make something with your own loved one's clothes, or you mean to start making these commercially, this book will guide you through the process.

It starts with the different kinds of cushions you can make. "Favourite Shirt" cushions, and patchwork cushions, and then shows you how to take this a step further to make throws and quilts.

The book includes a full-sized sewing pattern, and instructions for making a memory bear, and customising this with embroidery or accessories.

And finally, it shows you the different ways you can make embroidered patches, and how to insert some of the late person's ashes into your keepsake, if this is what you want to do.

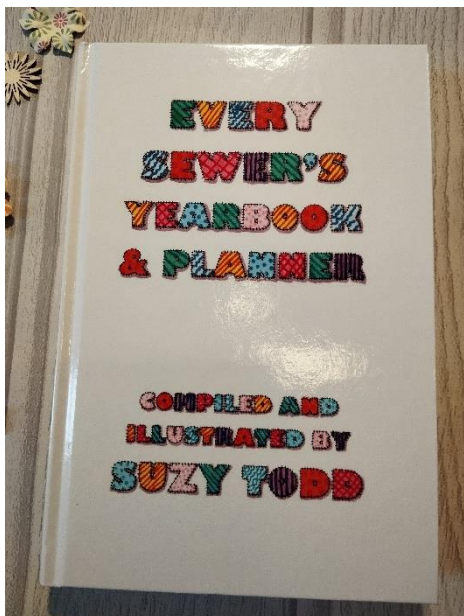

This month's featured publication:
